Plans Under Way for Fourth Celebration

Bigger Fireworks Display Than Last Year at Less Cost
Planned

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

Arrangements are underway to assure the continuance of Narberth's time-honored observance of the Birthday of the Nation. It is expected that the attendance on the Playground the coming Fourth will be more numerous than on any previous anniversary, inasmuch as it is believed Borough residents will be disposed to keep closer to home in this year which the locusts hath eaten than was the case when tomorrow's ale and cakes were more or less assured facts.

The usual request for funds, it is stated, will be in the mails next week, a personal request to each member of the community who is known to have the will to help along on worth-while things, and who can usually devise a way to do what should be done.

Last year it was estimated that 10,000 persons witnessed the pyrotechnic displays and the affair was described as the finest thing of its kind in the Philadelphia section. This year, it is claimed, a greater demonstration will be possible at a lesser cost and the committee in charge advises that special consideration will be given to exhibits acclaiming the life and deeds of General George Washington as part of the Bi-Centennial observance.

The music of the occasion will be secured through the efforts of Charles V. Noel and the Declaration of Independence will be read. A new feature of the program will be the singing of "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" by the assembled multitude, under skilled direction.

The committee, appointed by the Burgess, is drawn from various activities of the Borough, and includes J. J. Cabrey as chairman and J. L. McCrery as treasurer, with Daniel Leitch, representing the Borough Council; Ralph S. Dunne, representing the Narberth Business Council, and Harry A. Simpson, the American Legion, under whose auspices the exercises will be conducted.

Business Council Plans Parking Space; Open Meeting Next Wednesday

Plans for parking space for Haverford avenue shoppers and for a special meeting open to all Narberth storekeepers were made at a meeting of the Narberth Business Council held at the Arcadia Restaurant Wednesday early afternoon.

As part of the development of Haverford avenue, from Essex to Wynnewood road, borough authorities have offered to clear off and improve the lot behind the Narberth National Bank, for use as additional parking space for shoppers in the Borough. The Business Council decided to erect a suitable sign and keep the lot clean, and assume responsibility for the space if Borough Council will accept a nominal rent for it.

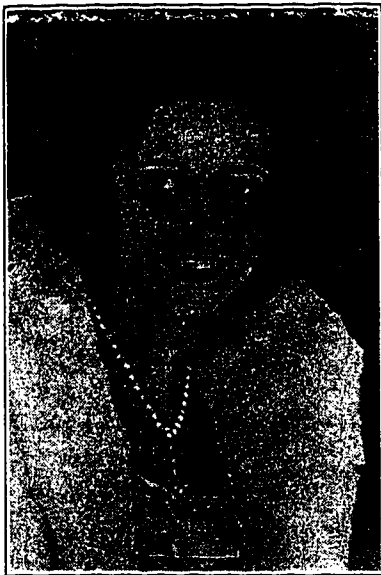

As an outgrowth of friendly discussion of several topics at Wednesday's meeting, it was decided to hold an open meeting in the American Legion room of the Community Building, 8 P. M., next Wednesday, which all retail merchants who conduct business in Narberth are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served. President Ralph S. Dunne is expected to preside and there will be a guest speaker.

Elma Reese Graduated From Temple Yesterday

Miss Elma L. Reese, of 219 Hampden avenue, Narberth, was graduated from the Teachers' College, Department of Secondary Education, at Temple University, yesterday.

Miss Reese, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Reese, was cited this spring as one of the 15 outstanding seniors at Temple. She was president of the Magnet Society, of the Secondary Education Club, of the Teachers' College Senate; treasurer of the Women's Athletic Association; track and hockey manager and a member of the Historical Honorary Society.

Improvement Begun of Haverford Avenue

Slightly Increased Cost to be Shared by County and Borough

NOTIFY THE RAILROAD

Work was started this week on the improvement of Haverford avenue from Essex to Wynnewood avenues, which is being done by the Borough and County with the County bearing most of the cost of the improvement.

As the result of a recent inspection by the County Engineer, it was found that more excavation would have to be made than was originally proposed. This extra grading would increase the total cost of the project from $6500 to $7400.

The County Commissioners agreed to increase the appropriation to $7400 provided that the Borough would pay an additional $300 making a total contribution from the Borough of $1300. The County authorities also asked that Narberth furnish two trucks and one steam roller to the County, remove the grand stand in the line of construction, build the curb and sidewalk at Wynnewood road, and lower the existing storm sewer to the bed of the cartway.

The terms set forth by the County Commissioners were stated in the report of the Borough Highway and Sewer Committee, of which Robert F. Wood is chairman, and approved by Council on Monday night.

A letter from the Burgess, Henry A. Frye, to the Pennsylvania Railroad was also included in the report calling attention to the proposed improvement of Haverford avenue, and stating that the improvement was being made without reference to the actual boundary lines between the railroad and the property of the Borough. No curb will be placed along the side of the street faced with the railroad property, it was stated.

Gentlemanly Police Dept., Aim, Says Smith at Rotary

"The days of the knock-down-and-drag-out type of policeman have gone in Lower Merion," said Superintendent Charles P. Smith, speaking before the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Tuesday. "We are trying to maintain a gentlemanly department, devoted to public protection."

The many functions of the Township police organization, which includes 102 men, were explained. Not only do they patrol Lower Merion and Narberth in three squads daily, but are called upon for many special duties. Among these the speaker told of welfare work, protection of school children, etc.

"Our men are instructed to be courteous to motorists, but to keep a close check on traffic violations. We realize that no motorist is ever wrong when he gets to court, but it is sometimes necessary to get a man off the road for his own good. This is particularly true when liquor is involved."

Traffic Court to be Established in Boro

Imposition of Fines on Chronic Offenders Recommended by Council

CHANGE REGULATIONS

The impositions of fines and costs on chronic offenders of traffic and parking violations was recommended at the June meeting of the Narberth Borough Council Monday night.

The attention of Council was directed to the matter in the report of the Public Safety Committee, which pointed out that 223 warning tags had been issued thus far this year, but that no summonses had been issued.

"We realize the futility of the police," the report stated, "in their job unless there is a definite action on the part of the Burgess in issuing summonses and having offenders heard either before the Burgess or a magistrate who will impartially and adequately administer just penalties to those proven guilty."

As the result of an informal discussion it was decided to establish a traffic court to sit regularly in the Council Chamber to hear cases of traffic and parking violations. It will be presided over by a magistrate or Burgess Henry A. Frye, who is working out the details of the plan. It is expected that the new system of dealing with offenders will go into effect by the first of the month.

A change in the parking regulations on Essex, Forest and Narberth avenues, from one hour parking on the west side, to one hour parking on both sides of these streets, was approved by Council.

In explanation of this change the report of the Public Safety Committee stated: "In extending the parking regulations your Committee does not desire to have the police interfere with parking by legitimate shoppers. We realize the need for complete cooperation between the Burgess and our officers in enforcing parking rules in the business area. Proper enforcement of the regulation would result in much convenience to legitimate shoppers and benefit to the merchants."

The Tax Collector's list of exonerations due to duplications, removals and death was read at the meeting. It amounted to a total of $1223.65 and exonerated 516 persons.

Wins Vienna Scholarship

Ames Johnston, of 16 Brynwood Manor road, Narberth, has been awarded a fellowship to study Germanics and history of art at the University of Vienna. Mr. Johnston received a bachelor of arts degree from Haverford in 1925 and a master of arts degree from Harvard in 1929. He was instructor in German at Harvard for three years and at present is teaching German at Temple University. He expects to leave for Austria late in the summer.

Literature Group Tuesday

The Literature Group of the Women's Community Club of Narberth will hold a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Breerwood, on Elmwood avenue. Mrs. Charles Dillingham will review one of the new mystery stories.

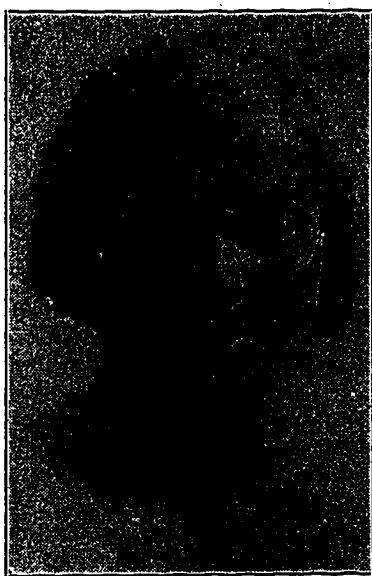

Speaks at Rotary

CHARLES P. SMITH

Superintendent of Police, who explained the functions of the Township Police Department Tuesday before the Bala-Cynwyd Narberth Rotary Club.

Captures Scholarship

ELIZABETH SMEDLEY
daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Q. Smedley, of Forest avenue, Narberth, who was announced recently as the winner of the Bryn Mawr College scholarship from Lower Merion High School.

Narberth Wins Sixth Straight in League

Jack Hart's Vets Bow to Boro
Nine 6-2 Saturday at Playground

FRANCIS LED AT BAT

By JOHN MULLIGAN
Moving along steadily on the road that eventually may lead to a first-half championship, Narberth continued to bring happiness to the town fans who take their Main Line League baseball seriously by dumping Jack Hart's Vets for victory number six Saturday at the Playground. The score was 6-2, the visitors getting their runs in the first and fifth innings after the side should have been retired scoreless in each instance.

Bud Walker, bronzed southpaw, who dealt out poison to the South Phillies for eight innings recently at Philadelphia, again drew the mound assignment for Gene Davis' clan and suffered no anxious moments, due to the mild threats of the Hartmen. Walker didn't impress one as a sensation, since the invading nine reached him for eight hits, one more than Pitcher "Reds" Kelly allowed the Borough-ites, nevertheless, his success was due to head work, pitching to the opponents' weaknesses rather than a bag-full of stuff.

If the Davismen were worried when the Veterans tabbed a single run in their first turn with the stick, certainly they didn't wait around for any length of time before doing something to remedy it, and accordingly evened it up in their half, then took the lead for keepers in the second by garnering a trio of markers.

Ferguson, Hart's capable shortstopper, opened the game with a solid double almost before the fans realized that the battle was begun, and dented the rubber soon thereafter for the reason that Doc Walker muffed Johnny Powell's hopper to the hot corner.

The uneasiness of the home fans was eliminated before long, however, because Harry Francis patted a single and scored later on MacGregor's pop-up to the keystone. Scoring from third on a pop-fly in any man's game is no easy matter, that is if said pop is the average type, but this one wasn't. Johnny Powell ran far out into right field and took the ball over his shoulder in a play that drew a round of applause from the stands. Incidentally the other Powell, Howdy, Narberth kid star, pulled a classy play in the early half of the same

Final Notices Mailed on Per Capita Tax Bills

Final notices on per capita tax bills, demanding payment within thirty days, were sent out this week by Narberth Tax Collector Edwin P. Dold.

These bills were mailed to every adult resident of the Borough in July, 1931. To avoid additional penalty and costs of collection, these taxes should be paid by July 15.

The Tax Collector will be at the Narberth National Banch each Friday evening from 7 to 9 P. M. to receive payment or adjust errors of duplications, etc.

Merger Opposed by Vote of 265 to 60; Straw Vote to Continue

Baseball Schedule

The schedule for the Narberth Baseball Club for the coming week is as follows: This Saturday, Paoli at Narberth; Sunday, Nicetown, leaders of the Philadelphia League, at 12th and Luzerne; Monday, Upper Darby at Narberth (Del-Mont League game); Wednesday, Upper Darby at Narberth (Main Line League game).

Arrests Hinted in Merion Title Crash

The possibility of criminal prosecution of one or more officials of the Merion Title and Trust Company was hinted this week in a statement by Dr. William G. Gordon, State Secretary of Banking. The statement followed the arrest of three men in connection with the closing of the Northwestern Trust Co.

Dr. Gordon stated that sweeping investigations are being made into the conduct both of the Main Line institution and the Franklin Trust Company, of Philadelphia. While no intimation was given that any facts showing illegal manipulations were in the possession of the authorities, the statement was made that no one would be spared if the investigation showed grounds for prosecution.

The Merion Title and Trust Company, which closed October 28, 1931, showed a shrinkage so great that the payment to depositors may be as little as 30 per cent.

Women Stage Tournament at Bridge Club Today

The Women's Division of The Narberth Bridge Club will hold a tournament in the club rooms this Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Preceding the tournament there will be a short business meeting, followed by duplicate bridge. The next open day at the club for the Women's Division will be next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Winners in the tournament last Monday evening were N. and S., C. Alfred Peeney and Frank X. Purcell, E. and W., H. I. McConnell and Caryl E. Starr.

Boro Pastor Compiles Chronology of Bible

Dating of Books Presents Many Difficulties, Says Mr.
Keighton

"CIRCA" IS USED OFTEN

A chronology of the books of the Bible has recently been compiled by the Rev. Robert E. Keighton, pastor of the Baptist Church of the Evangel, Narberth.

The dating of the books of the Bible presents many difficulties, Mr. Keighton points out. Among them are the several schools of scholars, the fact that books are frequently compilations and represent several authors and different times, that some cover long periods, and that evidence is rarely clear and frequently is a matter of personal judgment.

Any student of ancient literature, he says, soon becomes accustomed to the word "circa," meaning "around the time of." It is a critical as well as a chronological word.

The chronology follows:

The Old Testament:
800-700 B. C.—Amos, Hosea, Isaiah (1-39), Micah.

700-600 B. C.—Nahum, Zephaniah, probably Habakkuk.

600-500 B. C.—Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Job, Obadiah, Lamentations, Haggai, Zechariah (1-8), Isaiah (40-66), Job, Psalms begun.

500-400 B. C.—Jonah, Ruth, Ecclesiastes, Malachi, Completion of the Hexateuch (First Six Books).

400-300 B. C.—Song of Songs, Esther, Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Zechariah (9-14), Final Editing of Judges, Samuel, Kings.

200-100 B. C.—Daniel, Proverbs completed.

Eighteen Per Cent of 325 Residents Voting for Proposal

EXCEEDS LAST VOTE

Due to the great interest evidenced during the past week in the poll being conducted by "Our Town" on the proposed merger of the Borough of Narberth with Lower Merion Township, it will be continued as long as public interest warrants.

To date 325 residents have registered their views, approximately 150 more than attended the public meeting held at the Narberth School, at which the merger was voted down by a seven-to-one vote.

The vote now stands at 265 opposed to the merger, with 60 in favor of the step. Eighteen per cent. of the residents voting would prefer Narberth to become a part of the Township, while 82 per cent. are satisfied to have Narberth remain a Borough. The majority for the "anti-mergerites" is nearly four and one-half to one.

As there are approximately 2000 taxpaying residents who are entitled to vote on the question, it is felt that a larger majority, if given the opportunity, will indicate their view, either for or against.

Another coupon is printed in this issue of "Our Town" and additional ballots will be available at Davis' and the Post Office to facilitate voting. Coupons may be deposited in the boxes at Davis' and the Post Office or mailed to "Our Town."

The results of the balloting will be tabulated again in next week's issue.

Girl Scouts to Present Entertainment Tonight

The Narberth Girl Scout Troop, No. 47, will present an entertainment in the Girl Scout wing of the Community Building this Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The program is as follows:

The Beauty Parlor, distributed free by the Inter-State Dairy Council of Philadelphia; opening number, Home on the Range, by entire troop; Russian dance, Kathryn Bailly; Minuet, Mary Hewitt and Marie Tapp, accompanied on the piano by Kathryn Bailly; tap dance, Marie Tapp; violin solo, Myra Markle, accompanied on the piano by Annette Warden.

The Beauty Parlor characters: Helen, Madame Helen, Anna Brennan; Peggy, an assistant, Anna Donahue; Susan, an assistant, Annette Warden; Marjory, a customer, Marie Tapp; Edith, a customer, Mary Hewitt; Jane, a customer, Kathryn Bailly; Mrs. Porter, Helen's mother, Myra Markle; Peggy's assistant, Margaret Duffy; Susan's assistant, Frances Metzradt; the secretary, Rita Hergan.

Awarding of attendance stars will conclude the program.

Lawn Fete and Strawberry Festival to be Held Tonight

A lawn fete and strawberry festival will be held tonight on the lawn of the Narberth Methodist Church. Music will be furnished by the Methodist Orphanage Band. Provision is being made for the entertainment of the children and young people. Tickets include the usual platter of ice cream, strawberries and home-made cake. Home-made candy will be on sale. Other surprise features will be in evidence. The fete is sponsored by the Ladies' Aid Society, the Men's Club and the Epworth League.

Officers Elected at Annual Meeting of Narberth Players

At the annual meeting of the Narberth Players, held last week, the following officers were elected: W. Russell Green, president; J. Bedford Wooley, vice-president; Mrs. Jesse S. Harris, treasurer, and Mrs. John Nash, secretary.

The meeting, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Green, on Woodbine avenue, was attended by 45 members of the organization. Miss Marion Seely, an operatic singer, entertained the group following the business meeting.

Does Indifference Rule?

The announcement this week of the results to date in the straw vote on the merger would appear to indicate that the majority of the taxpaying residents of Narberth are apathetic to the future of the Borough.

A fairly sizeable and articulate group, including many of the older residents feel that despite higher taxes, the Borough status should be retained. If, however, these residents who favor the retention of the Borough cannot show that there are at least 700 taxpaying citizens of a like mind, there is still hope for those who would scrap the Borough. Under the State law a petition seeking nullification of a borough charter must bear the signatures of two thirds of the taxpaying residents before it will be considered by the Courts.

Therefore the procedure for those opposed to a merger of Narberth with Lower Merion Township is to indicate through the poll being conducted by this paper that it will be virtually impossible to secure the necessary signatures.

We cannot believe that the residents of Narberth are too indifferent to give the matter serious consideration. We do not hold a brief either for or against the proposal. Our object is to present the facts adequately and impartially and let the citizens form their own opinion based on them.

As one of the chief parties concerned, we feel that the School Board should state its position officially on the merger. The whole agitation developed out of consideration of a school problem. The question is not whether Narberth children are getting as good an education in the Narberth School as is given to Township children attending Lower Merion Schools. The consistent manner in which Narberth pupils win scholastic honors at Lower Merion High School affords ample testimony to the excellent preparation given them at the Narberth School.

The problem is rather an economic one with which the School Board is increasingly unable to cope. Almost half of its revenue is now paid by the Narberth School District to Lower Merion for tuition of ninth grade and senior high school pupils. Tuition expenses have increased while the available revenue has remained stationary. True the revenue could be increased by a higher tax rate but it would be a bold school board indeed which would contemplate such a step in these times. The School district is also facing a mounting deficit which must be met somehow.

When the Borough end of the picture is considered, the saving under a merger would not be sufficient in the opinion of many to justify the scrapping of an efficient and compact local government which is very responsive to the needs and desires of its citizens.

The poll will be continued so long as interest warrants with the hope that a decisive majority opinion either one way or another, will be registered.

Shreds & Patches

Some Listened to Nero

If Nero actually did fiddle while Rome burned, of course he was either drunk or crazy, probably both. It is equally true, however, that there were undoubtedly many people, in no way off their normal mental poise, who came alone, paused and remained to listen to the emperor's fiddling. Otherwise, how did it come to be noted, remembered and recorded that in the time of the great conflagration he did fiddle? Possibly it is presumptuous for The Vagrant to compare himself to an emperor, even one so infamous as Nero, but it does strike him that writing this column in times like these is a futile and possibly egotistical effort on his part. Has he the power of thought and expression sufficient to divert the minds of people in these days? If so, is diversion as such desirable? If he should make current events his exclusive theme, is it likely that he could add anything worth reading to the immense amount of discordant printed matter which is now appearing on that subject? He cannot answer those questions, except to say that it is a part of his job to write this weekly column for newspapers and that this is no time for any man to run away from that to which he has been assigned by those who may be better judges of his worth than he is himself.

Walter Lippmann

What are the other columnists doing in these days? Walter Lippmann, if he may be properly included at all in the somewhat trivial group of newspaper columnists, is going ahead with his usual intelligent and penetrating analysis and constructive comment on current events at home and abroad. Fortunately he has always been serious. It is his constant assumption that his readers are intelligent and that he should appeal to them on no other basis. His daily articles, as they are made available to local readers by The Philadelphia Record, are much worth reading by anyone who desires to come into contact with a strong and helpful process of reasoning in times like these. Lippmann's opinion are his own, and they do not coincide with the editorial policies and beliefs of The Record. If there are people hereabout who do not like The Record, they would find it worth the cost to buy that paper merely to read Lippmann daily. He is far from radical, although his opinions frequently do not agree with the desires of the extreme conservatives. His recent analysis and constructive comments on the "Bonus Army" in Washington were the best expression which The Vagrant has seen on that subject. The Vagrant most sincerely commends Lippmann to all his readers even at the risk of having himself pale into insignificance as a result.

Heywood Broun

Two other nationally known columnists readily come to mind in this discussion. They are Heywood Broun and Franklin P. Adams. Broun is frankly and honestly a socialist and as such he finds himself in excellent intellectual company, but he has a reputation for wit which he must maintain at all odds and it is his habit to assume that his readers will be interested in his opinions because they are his opinions. His column also appears in The Record and is usually worth glancing over, since the same two-cents which buys Lippmann also throws in Broun. Otherwise, he could be neglected by the thoughtful person who is seeking light and leading in these days.

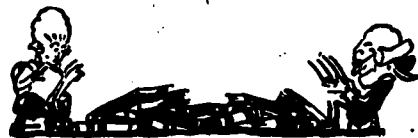

Franklin P. Adams

Franklin P. Adams, commonly known as "F. P. A.," continues to perform in these days just the same as for the past 20 years or more and in The Vagrant's opinion he is out of tune with the times. A brilliant mind which has contented itself with role of a mountebank so long that it is now impossible to be otherwise, that is the rut which Adams has dug for himself. The Vagrant doubts whether the people who read the New York Herald-Tribune are particularly interested nowadays in Adams' success at poker, his declining prowess at tennis, and the chatter which he has with his friends and associates, even though the names of many of them are well known and the opinions of some are worth consideration when presented first-hand. No Philadelphia newspaper reprints Adams, and that is no particular loss to this vicinage.

Haverford Lecturers' Books Are Available at Library

Local people who have had an opportunity this week to take advantage of the public lectures given at Roberts Hall, Haverford College, under the auspices of the Institute of International Relations, will be glad to know that two of the lecturers are represented in the Library's collection of books, Norman Thomas, in "As I See It," and Yuzuki Tsurumi in "Mother," both books being recent purchases of the Library.

Norman Thomas, author of "As I See It," is the presidential candidate of the Socialist party, and argues constantly in newspapers, magazines and on the platform, as well as in his books, in the interest of organized effort for peace and the solution of economic problems.

Yuzuki Tsurumi, leader of the Youth of Japan, has come into prominence recently in this country through his book, "Mother," which for two years has been sweeping the country of Japan, and during the winter just past has been popular in the United States in a translation by the author. This book is a novel of current Japanese life, and pictures rather sketchily the modern trends of that country. Both these books will give a good insight into the qualities and powers of the two men.

Local Movies

Egyptian Notes

Barbara Stanwyck gives an appealing performance in "Shopworn" at the Egyptian, Cynwyd, this Friday and Saturday nights. Regis Toomey aids, and comedy relief is given by Zasu Pitts.

An attraction more suitable for children will be shown at this Saturday's matinee.

Based on "Juvenile Court," a story of deep human appeal, "Hell's House" is coming Monday and Tuesday, with Pat O'Brien and Junior Durkin. Wednesday and Thursday, including a matinee Wednesday, Warner Baxter and Marian Nixon will entertain in "Amateur Daddy," in which Mr. Baxter adopts more children than one bachelor can care for conveniently. "But the Flesh Is Weak" brings Robert Montgomery, Edward Everett Horton and Nora Gregor next weekend; a sparkling comedy.

Narberth Theatre Notes

Racing thrills feature "The Crowd Roars," well recommended feature at Narberth this week-end. The cast includes James Cagney, Joan Blondell, Ann Dvorak and Eric Linden. Accompanying is a Charlie Chase comedy.

Richard Barthelmess stars in "Alias The Doctor," tale of self-sacrifice of a medical student to protect his brother; Norman Foster and Marian Marsh are in it; next Monday and Tuesday.

Ruth Chatterton has a pleasing role in "The Rich Are Always With Us," next Wednesday and Thursday. The end of next week, Spencer Tracy is coming in "Sky Devils."

Premiere of "Cherokee Night" at Hedgerow Tomorrow

The second and third performances of Lynn Riggs' newest play, "The Cherokee Night," will take place on Monday and Tuesday nights at the Hedgerow Theatre in Rose Valley. Besides being the only work by an American on the schedule for the week, its theme is Americans and their Indian inheritance, a subject hitherto better known in our literature than in the theatre. The major part of the week is given over to three comedies and one serious work of English authorship—on Wednesday night Shaw's continuingly popular

Athletic Awards Made at Narberth School Friday
Last Friday the athletic awards were given to the Watson "Bulldogs," the Narberth School baseball team and the Reds during auditorium period.
The Watson "Bulldogs" won the Nash Cup, which is awarded to the club of boys winning the highest number of games during soccer, basketball and baseball seasons. The "Bulldogs" also received letters for winning in the baseball season. The following boys received letters: Joseph Casey, William Watson, Donald Vogts, Harvey Cook, George Miller, Nick D'Lonzo, Robert Carrol, Mike Spenneli, Jack Weir, Harrison Berry and Edmund Boone.

The school baseball team received larger letters. They played four games during the year. The boys who received the letters were Joseph Casey, William Watson, Andrew Burns, Anthony Dimidio, Harvey Cook, Patsy Marianna and Jack Weir. Four other members were ineligible more than twice, so they received no letters.
On the annual field day, between the Reds and the Grays, the Reds won. The Reds won in the lower grades, including the first to the fifth, but the Grays won in the upper grades. However, the lower grade Reds had accomplished such a lead that the Grays couldn't overcome it. The Reds won by the score of 344 to 316. The silver trophy given for this purpose was awarded to Samuel Miller, captain of the Reds.

ALLAN WORRELL, 8th Grade.
Red Team Receives Cup
The Narberth Junior High School awards for Field Day on May 19 were awarded in the auditorium June 10. Every year there are cups and letters presented to the winning teams and to the girls who have the highest number of points at the end of the year, respectively. The awards are as follows:

Reds: First, Rita Salvatorelli, 8th grade; second, Eunice Griswold, 8th grade; third, Betty Kennedy, 8th grade; first, Virginia Mariani, 7th grade; second, Emily Hofman, 7th grade; first, Miriam Pulch, 6th grade.

For the Grays: First, Pauline Sabrovich, 8th grade; second, Betty Murray, 8th grade; first, Julia Hess, 7th grade; second, Helen Mariani, 7th grade; first, Maria Tapp, 6th grade; second, Myrtle Hager, 6th grade.

The awards for the Archery Club were given to Eunice Griswold and Flora Hultgren; Eunice Griswold made the highest number of points for the Reds and Flora Hultgren made the highest number of points for the Grays. Eunice Caldwell received honorable mention for the third place.

The last and most interesting award was the presentation of the Nash Trophy, which each year is presented to the captain of the color team with the highest amount of points. Louise Megee, who is the captain of the Reds, received this cup.

The Red team is proud to announce that they also won the cup last year. LOUISE MEGEE, 8th Grade.

Narberth Wins Sixth Straight in League

frame. Catcher Sirch slashed one off Bud Walker's shins and it rebounded, spinning in a troublesome manner between Powell and the initial sack. Howdy came in fast, scooped up the pellet in his right hand, and with the one motion tossed the runner out at the bag by a whisker.

Gene Davis' sluggers then made victory almost certain by reaching Kelly often and taking advantage of his wildness. Charley Carroll poked a bingle in the second, as did Cliff Mooney, and Harry King drew a pass after Doc Walker was thrown out short to first. Bud Walker came up with the bases loaded and promptly lashed a two-bagger to left field, admitting two runs. Kelly struck out Powell after issuing a pass to Francis, then tossed four more balls to MacGregor, forcing in the third run. Barney Slaughter was tossed out on a tap to second, ending the rally.

Narberth coasted along, adding two final runs in the stretch inning as an answer to the Vets' one in the fifth. The latter was the result of a muff of a fly ball by Mooney in center after two were out. Sirch lifted one to the flashy center gardener, who dropped it. McGee and Johnny Powell both singled and the run crossed while the latter was being tossed out at second base.

Little Harry Francis, who likes to reminisce about the days when he used to know Knute Rockne, led the locals at bat with two hits.

Presbyterian Church Choir Enjoys Picnic at Nash Farm
Last Friday evening a group of seventy people attended a most enjoyable picnic on the farm of Robert J. Nash. These consisted of members of the choir of the Narberth Presbyterian Church and their families.
Many games for both children and adults had been planned by the committee in charge, which afforded much pleasure to all who participated.
After a delicious supper had been served a cozy circle was formed by those present to hear Mrs. Edward Haws bring reminiscences of the church choir of thirty years ago, of which Mrs. Haws was a member. She told of the choir being situated above the pulpit at that time and of a number of humorous incidents that occurred in the choir of that period.
